CASE NO. 10-62100-CIV-MORENO
MAGISTRATE JUDGE P. A. WHITE

JONAS R. AUGUSTIN,	:
Plaintiff,	:
v.	:	ORDER SCHEDULING PRETRIAL
PAUL CONDOLEO, et al.,	:	PROCEEDINGS WHEN PLAINTIFF
Defendants.	:	IS PROCEEDING PRO SE

The plaintiff in this case is incarcerated, without counsel, so that it would be difficult for either the plaintiff or the defendants to comply fully with the pretrial procedures required by Local Rule 16.1 of this Court. It is thereupon

ORDERED AND ADJUDGED as follows:

1. All discovery methods listed in Rule 26(a), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, shall be completed by May 4, 2011. This shall include all motions relating to discovery.

2. All motions to join additional parties or amend the pleadings shall be filed by May 18, 2011.

3. All motions to dismiss and/or for summary judgment shall be filed by June 9, 2011.

4. On or before June 23, 2011, the plaintiff shall file with the Court and serve upon counsel for the defendants a document called "Pretrial Statement." The Pretrial Statement shall contain the following things:

- (a) A brief general statement of what the case is about;
- (b) A written statement of the facts that will be offered by oral or documentary evidence at trial; this means that the plaintiff must explain what he intends to prove at trial and how he intends to prove it;
- (c) A list of all exhibits to be offered into evidence at the trial of the case;
- (d) A list of the full names and addresses of places of employment for all the non-inmate witnesses that the plaintiff intends to call (the plaintiff must notify the Court of any changes in their addresses);
- (e) A list of the full names, inmate numbers, and places of incarceration of all the inmate witness that plaintiff intends to call (the plaintiff must notify the Court of any changes in their places of incarceration); and
- (f) A summary of the testimony that the plaintiff expects each of his witnesses to give.

5. On or before July 7, 2011, defendants shall file and serve upon plaintiff a "Pretrial Statement," which shall comply with paragraph 4(a)-(f).

6. Failure of the parties to disclose fully in the Pretrial Statement the substance of the evidence to be offered at trial may result in the exclusion of that evidence at the trial. Exceptions will be (1) matters which the Court determines were not discover-able at the time of the pretrial conference, (2) privileged matters, and (3) matters to be used solely for impeachment purposes.

7. If the plaintiff fails to file a Pretrial Statement, as required by paragraph 4 of this order, paragraph 5 of this order shall be suspended and the defendants shall notify the Court of plaintiff's failure to comply. The plaintiff is cautioned that failure to file the Pretrial Statement may result in dismissal of this case for lack of prosecution.

8. The plaintiff shall serve upon defense counsel, at the address given for him/her in this order, a copy of every pleading, motion, memorandum, or other paper submitted for consideration by the Court and shall include on the original document filed with the Clerk of the Court a certificate stating the date that a true and correct copy of the pleading, motion, memorandum, or other paper was mailed to counsel. All pleadings, motions, memoranda, or other papers shall be filed with the Clerk and must include a certificate of service or they will be disregarded by the Court.

9. A pretrial conference may be set pursuant to Local Rule 16.1 of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, after the pretrial statements have been filed. Prior to such a conference, the parties or their counsel shall meet in a good faith effort to:

- (a) discuss the possibility of settlement;
- (b) stipulate (agree) in writing to as many facts and issues as possible to avoid unnecessary evidence;
- (c) examine all exhibits and documents proposed to be used at the trial, except that impeachment documents need not be revealed;

- (d) mark all exhibits and prepare an exhibit list;
- (e) initial and date opposing party's exhibits;
- (f) prepare a list of motions or other matters which require Court attention; and
- (g) discuss any other matters that may help in concluding this case.

10. All motions filed by defense counsel must include a proposed order for the undersigned Magistrate Judge's signature.

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO. 10-62100-CIV-MORENO/WHITE

JONAS R. AUGUSTIN,

Plaintiff,

vs.

PAUL CONDOLEO AND
TOM MCINERNEY,

Defendants.

DEFENDANTS' MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT
AND INCORPORATED SUPPORTING MEMORANDUM OF LAW

COME NOW the Defendants, PAUL CONDOLEO ("Condoleo") and TOM MCINERNEY ("McInerney"), by and through their undersigned counsel and pursuant to Rule 56, Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, and Rule 7.5, Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, hereby submit this Motion for Summary Judgment and Incorporated Supporting Memorandum of Law, and state as follows:

1. In this § 1983 action, Plaintiff, JONAS R. AUGUSTIN ("Augustin"), has alleged that Defendants used excessive force in effecting his arrest following an undercover narcotics operation.

2. In his Complaint, Plaintiff alleges that he was fleeing police officers who were chasing him and was ultimately apprehended and handcuffed outside his aunt's house. (Complaint, p. 3). Plaintiff further alleges that officers "beat" him up while he was handcuffed and that, as a result, they broke his right hand pinky finger, injured his knee, and injured his back. (Complaint, p. 3).

3. Although Plaintiff did name Condoleo and McInerney as Defendants in the Complaint, the allegations in the Complaint refer only to "police officers" and "officers," and not specifically to Condoleo and McInerney. The undisputed evidence of record affirmatively demonstrates that neither Condoleo or McInerney were present during, nor did they participate in, Plaintiff's physical apprehension, handcuffing, and placement in a marked police vehicle. Thus, the record demonstrates that neither Condoleo nor McInerney exerted any force whatsoever on Plaintiff, nor were they even in a position to do so. There are no disputed issues of fact concerning this issue, and Defendants are entitled to summary judgment on this basis alone.

4. Moreover, Plaintiff's allegations in the Complaint regarding his injuries are contradicted by his own deposition testimony, which is itself internally contradictory on many points, and also by the other record evidence of this case. The undisputed evidence, as opposed to Plaintiff's mere uncorroborated allegations, clearly indicates that to the extent Plaintiff suffered any injuries whatsoever incident to his arrest, they were de minimis as a matter of law. Furthermore, the undisputed evidence also indicates that any force applied during Plaintiff's arrest was de minimis, reasonable, and not excessive. Accordingly, even if Defendants were to have engaged in the alleged conduct, of which there is no evidence, there would be no constitutional violation, and therefore, Plaintiff's claims cannot survive summary judgment. Furthermore, even if there were a constitutional violation, Defendants would be entitled to qualified immunity as a matter of law and, therefore, entitled to summary judgment on that ground.

5. For the foregoing reasons, developed in more detail below, Defendants Condoleo and McInerney are entitled to summary judgment as a matter of law.

UNCONTESTED FACTS

In order to avoid redundancy, Defendants direct the Court to their Statement of Material Facts in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment ("Statement of Facts"), filed separately in conjunction with this Motion.

MEMORANDUM OF LAW

Summary Judgment Standard

Summary judgment is appropriate where "the pleadings, depositions, answers to interrogatories, and admissions on file, together with the affidavits, if any, show that there is no genuine issue as to any material fact and that the moving party is entitled to a judgment as a matter of law." Fed. R. Civ. P. 56(c); Celotex Corp. v. Catrett, 477 U.S. 317, 322 (1986). The movant may meet its burden by presenting evidence indicating there is no dispute of material fact or by showing that the nonmoving party has failed to present evidence in support of some element of its case on which it bears the ultimate burden of proof. Celotex, 477 U.S. at 322-24. Then, the burden shifts to the plaintiff to establish, with appropriate evidence beyond the pleadings, that a genuine issue material to his case exists. Clark v. Coats & Clark, Inc., 929 F.2d 604, 608 (11th Cir. 1991); Celotex, 477 U.S. at 324. The Eleventh Circuit has held that "[c]onclusory, uncorroborated allegations by a plaintiff in an affidavit or deposition will not create an issue of fact for trial sufficient to defeat a well supported summary judgment motion." West v. Higgins, 2009 WL 2993823, at *2 (11th Cir. Sept. 21, 2009) (citing Earley v. Champion Int'l Corp., 907 F.2d 1077, 1081 (11th Cir. 1990)).

To survive a motion for summary judgment, the nonmoving party must establish that there is a genuine issue of material fact. Matsushita Elec. Indus. Co., Ltd. v. Zenith Radio Corp., 475 U.S. 574, 585-86 (1986). When a plaintiff fails to set forth specific facts supported by requisite evidence sufficient to establish the existence of an element essential to his case and on which the plaintiff will bear the burden of proof at trial, summary judgment is due to be granted in favor of the moving party. Celotex, 477 U.S. at 322. If the evidence presented by the nonmoving party is merely colorable, or is not significantly probative, summary judgment may be granted. Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 249-50 (1986). "A mere 'scintilla' of evidence supporting the opposing party's position will not suffice; there must be enough of a showing that the jury could reasonably find for that party." Walker v. Darby, 911 F.2d 1573, 1577 (11th Cir. 1990). If the record as a whole would preclude a rational fact finder from deciding in the nonmoving party's favor, then no genuine issue of material fact exists, and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law. Matsushita, 475 U.S. at 587.

Here, Plaintiff fails to "make a showing sufficient to establish the existence of an essential element to that party's case, and on which that party will bear the burden of proof at trial," Celotex, 477 U.S. at 322, namely, that Defendants used excessive force against him and caused him injuries on October 16, 2009.

ARGUMENT

- I. The undisputed record evidence establishes that Defendants did not participate in, nor were they even present during, Plaintiff's physical apprehension, handcuffing, and placement in a marked police vehicle.

McInerney and Condoleo have each testified in sworn affidavits indicating their whereabouts during the time Plaintiff was pursued, physically apprehended, handcuffed, and placed in a marked police vehicle. (See Affidavit of Thomas McInerney; Affidavit of Paul Condoleo, filed in conjunction herewith). McInerney's Affidavit indicates he remained in the undercover vehicle as Plaintiff was being pursued on foot by other deputies, who eventually apprehended Plaintiff and took him into custody outside McInerney's presence. (¶ 5). McInerney did not see Plaintiff until he had already been taken into custody, handcuffed, and was being led out of a yard into the street where he was placed into a marked police vehicle. (Affidavit of Thomas McInerney, ¶ 6). Condoleo's Affidavit indicates that, during the entire period of the undercover narcotics operation, and during the subsequent pursuit and arrest of Plaintiff, Condoleo remained in an unmarked vehicle maintaining a perimeter position. (¶¶ 5, 6). He did not ever leave his vehicle to pursue Plaintiff on foot and was not present when Plaintiff was apprehended and taken into custody by other deputies. (Affidavit of Paul Condoleo, ¶¶ 6, 8). The first time Condoleo saw Plaintiff was when he was in handcuffs being placed into the rear of a marked police car by other deputies. (Affidavit of Paul Condoleo, ¶ 7).

The accounts in the Affidavits of Condoleo and McInerney are corroborated by the Affidavit of Daniel Fitzpatrick, the lone Sergeant in charge of the undercover narcotics operation. Fitzpatrick's Affidavit indicates that he was present when deputies apprehended Plaintiff, handcuffed him, and took him into custody, and that neither McInerney nor Condoleo were present when Plaintiff was apprehended, handcuffed, and taken into custody by other deputies. (Affidavit of Daniel Fitzpatrick, ¶ 6). The foregoing evidence indicates that neither McInerney nor Condoleo were even present during the events Plaintiff complains of, much less that they used any force whatsoever against Plaintiff.

In his Complaint, Plaintiff merely alleges that "police officers" beat him up after handcuffing him. He does not identify the officers. During his deposition, Plaintiff attributed more specific conduct to McInerney and Condoleo. However, Plaintiff admitted that he did not know either McInerney or Condoleo prior to his arrest on October 16, 2009. (See Statement of Facts). When Plaintiff was questioned as to how he knew it was McInerney and Condoleo who arrested him, Plaintiff admitted he had just seen their names in the police report. (See Statement of Facts).¹ Plaintiff further testified that he was unconscious the entire time he was beaten after being handcuffed. (See Statement of Facts). Thus, Plaintiff, being in an unconscious state, would not have the ability to see which officer or officers were doing what. In addition, Plaintiff's description of what McInerney was wearing at the time in question is completely contradicted by the available video footage of the undercover operation, as well as McInerney's Affidavit. (See Statement of Facts; Affidavit of Thomas McInerney, ¶ 5).

The allegations in Plaintiff's Complaint and his deposition testimony do not create any issues of fact with respect to the Defendants' non-presence and non-participation with respect to Plaintiff's being physically taken into custody. Though courts must typically accept the plaintiff's version of the facts, the United States Supreme Court has recognized that "[w]hen opposing parties tell two different stories, one of which is blatantly contradicted by the record, so that no reasonable jury could believe it, a court should not adopt that version of the facts for purposes of ruling on a motion for summary judgment." Scott v. Harris, 550 U.S. 372, 380 (2007); see also Beshers v.

Harrison, 495 F.3d 1260, 1262 (11th Cir. 2007); Kesinger ex rel. Estate of Kesinger v. Herrington, 381 F.3d 1243, 1248 (11th Cir. 2004).

In Scott v. Harris, the Supreme Court considered the fact that the record contained a video recording of the events at issue. Appreciating the significance of the extrinsic evidence, the Court reasoned that where there was tangible physical evidence which "utterly discredited" the plaintiff's version of events, his version, even if in contrast to the defendant's, should not preclude summary judgment. 550 U.S. at 380. A plaintiff "must do more than simply show that there is some metaphysical doubt as to the material facts." Id. (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). "[T]he mere existence of some alleged factual dispute between the parties will not defeat an otherwise properly supported motion for summary judgment" Id.; (quoting Anderson v. Liberty Lobby, Inc., 477 U.S. 242, 247-48 (1986)).

II. The undisputed record evidence establishes that both the level of force used and Plaintiff's resulting injuries were de minimis as a matter of law, and, therefore, no constitutional violation occurred.

Despite Plaintiff's allegations that he was subject to excessive force during his arrest, the evidence of record indicates that any alleged injuries suffered were de minimis and that any force which allegedly caused such injuries was de minimis as a matter of law.

The Supreme Court has recognized that the right to make an arrest inherently carries with it the right to use a reasonable amount of force. Saucier v. Katz, 533 U.S. 194, 208 (2001). Moreover, in the Eleventh Circuit, it is recognized that the typical arrest involves some force and injury. Rodriguez v. Farrell, 280 F.3d 1341, 1351 (11th Cir. 2002). All claims that law enforcement officers have used excessive force during a seizure are analyzed under the reasonableness standard of the Fourth Amendment. Graham v. Connor, 490 U.S. 386, 394-95 (1989). The reasonableness inquiry is objective, "judged from the perspective of a reasonable officer on the scene, rather than with the 20/20 vision of hindsight." Id. at 396-97. Courts must pay careful attention to the facts and circumstances of the particular situation, and Graham identifies several relevant factors: (1) severity of the crime; (2) whether the suspect poses an immediate threat to the safety of the officers or others; and (3) whether the suspect is actively resisting arrest or attempting to evade arrest by flight. Id. at 396.

Here, Plaintiff was arrested following his sale of fifty dollars worth of crack cocaine to the undercover detective, McInerney, in the course of fleeing pursuing law enforcement officers on foot. Plaintiff is not contesting his arrest in this action.

There is no constitutional prohibition against the use of force unless such force is the sort "repugnant to the conscience of mankind." Whitley v. Albers, 475 U.S. 312, 327 (1986). The Eleventh Circuit has made clear that "some use of force by a police officer when making a custodial arrest is necessary and altogether lawful, regardless of the severity of the alleged offense." Durruthy v. Pastor, 351 F.3d 1080, 1094 (11th Cir. 2003). There, the court held that even if the force applied in effecting the arrest which included forcing the plaintiff to the ground and placing him in handcuffs was unnecessary, "plainly it was not unlawful" and was de minimis. See id.; see also Foster v. Metro. Airports Comm'n, 914 F.2d 1076, 1082 (8th Cir. 1990) (allegations of pain without more permanent or long-term injury were insufficient to support a claim of excessive force).

In the Eleventh Circuit, "the application of de minimis force, without more, will not support a claim for excessive force in violation of the Fourth Amendment." Nolin v. Isbell, 207 F.3d 1253, 1257 (11th Cir. 2001). This principle applies to a minimal amount of force and a minimal injury: "[A] minimal amount of force and injury . . . will not defeat an officer's qualified immunity in an excessive force case." Id. at 1258. Discussing the case of Jones v. City of Dothan, 121 F.3d 1456, 1460-61 (11th Cir. 1997), the Nolin court observed that while the use of force against the plaintiff in Jones may have been unnecessary, "the actual force used and the injury inflicted were both minor in nature. Given such variables, the application of the excessive force standard would not inevitably lead an official in the defendant officer's position to conclude that the force was unlawful." Id. at 1256-57. "In summary, minimal force and injury will not defeat qualified immunity; unnecessary force which is minimal and inflicts only minor injury will not inevitably defeat qualified immunity." Bradley v. West, 2007 WL 896274, at *6 (M.D. Ala. Mar. 22, 2007).

In Nolin v. Isbell, the Eleventh Circuit held that the officer was entitled to qualified immunity from the plaintiff's excessive force claims given the minimal amount of force and injury. 207 F.3d at 1257-58. There, the plaintiff alleged he was grabbed from behind by the shoulder and wrist, thrown against a van three or four feet away, kned in the back, and had his head pushed into the side of a van for which he suffered bruising which disappeared quickly and for which no medical attention was required. See id.; see also Rodriguez v. Farrell, 280 F.3d 1341 (11th Cir. 2002) (officer entitled to summary judgment since force was not excessive where he grabbed the arrestee's arm, twisting it around his back, jerking it up high to his shoulder and then handcuffed him as he fell to his knees screaming that the officer was hurting him and the handcuffs were not removed until his arrival at the police station); Taylor v. McDuffie, 155 F.3d 479 (4th Cir. 1998) (in spite of plaintiff's claims that police baton was shoved into his mouth and nose approximately 8-10 times, only slight swelling of the jaw and some irritation of membranes of the mouth were found "clearly de minimis" and not excessive as were abrasions of the wrists and ankles and tenderness over some ribs).

A number of Eleventh Circuit cases have found the use of force to be de minimis, and therefore incapable of precluding summary judgment. See, e.g., Crosby v. Monroe County, 394 F.3d 1328 (11th Cir. 2004) (foot in the face causing no injury); Nolin v. Isbell, 207 F.3d 1253, 1255 (11th Cir. 2000) (grabbed plaintiff and shoved him a few feet against a vehicle, pushed knee in back and head against van, and handcuffed him); Gold v. City of Miami, 121 F.3d 1442, 1444 (11th Cir. 1997) (handcuffed too tightly and for twenty minutes); Jones v. City of Dothan, 121 F.3d 1456, 1458 (11th Cir. 1997) (slammed plaintiff against the wall, kicked legs apart and required plaintiff to raise hands above head as officers carried out arrest); Post v. City of Fort Lauderdale, 7 F.3d 1552, 1556 (11th Cir. 1993) (pushed plaintiff against wall while handcuffed), modified, 14 F.3d 583 (11th Cir. 1994); see also Lee v. Ferraro, 284 F.3d 1188, 1199-1200 (11th Cir. 2002) (discussing these de minimis force cases).

In cases where plaintiffs have claimed to have sustained a physical injury as the result of the use of force, courts have refined the scope of those injuries deemed violative of the constitution, holding that "a physical injury is an observable or diagnosable medical condition requiring treatment by a medical care professional. It is not a sore muscle, an aching back, a scratch, an abrasion, a bruise, etc., which may last up to 2-3 weeks.” Smith v. City of Moultrie, 2007 WL 2684983, at *5 (M.D. Ga. Sept. 7, 2007) (citation omitted); Clay v. Water, 2007 WL 2874266, at *3 (M.D. Ga. Sept. 26, 2007) (citation omitted); see also Rodriguez v. Farrell, 280 F.3d 1341 (11th Cir. 2002); Nolin v. Isbell, 207 F.3d 1253, 1257-58 (11th Cir. 2000); Durruthy v. Pastor, 351 F.3d 1080, 1094 (11th Cir. 2003).

Summary judgment is appropriate where a plaintiff fails to produce evidence of physical injuries exceeding the Eleventh Circuit de minimis standard as stated in Nolin. See Bradley v. West, 2007 WL 896274, at *7 (M.D. Ala. Mar. 22, 2007). The lack of such an injury may be demonstrated by a failure to produce competent medical evidence of injuries and a failure to seek immediate medical care. See id. Here, the record establishes that to the extent Plaintiff was injured at all during his arrest, any such injuries are de minimis as a matter of law. The record further establishes that any force resulting in such de minimis injuries was also de minimis. Accordingly, Plaintiff cannot establish any constitutional violation based on excessive force, and his claims fail as a matter of law.

As developed in great detail in Defendants’ Statement of Facts, Plaintiff’s accounts of the events surrounding his arrest in his Complaint and in his deposition are hopelessly inconsistent. In the Complaint, the only injuries Plaintiff identifies are a broken pinky finger on his right hand, injury to his knee, and injury to his back. (Complaint, p. 3). However, when Plaintiff was taken to North Broward Medical Center for medical clearance immediately following his apprehension and arrest, he complained only of right jaw pain, cuts to his left small toe, and contusions to his left leg and face. (See Statement of Facts). The hospital records indicated that during the physician's physical exam of Plaintiff, the only injuries noted were a skin tear to his left small toe and an abrasion to the back of his left shoulder. (See Statement of Facts). The physician indicated there was no bruising or swelling to the face. (See Statement of Facts).

Upon Plaintiff's arrival at the Broward County Jail, he was medically screened and indicated that he was not currently ill or injured. (See Statement of Facts). The screening nurse indicated that Plaintiff did not have signs of pain, bleeding, or injury. (See Statement of Facts). Plaintiff was asked if he had any medical problems, including back problems, and he indicated he had only right hip pain. (See Statement of Facts). Plaintiff's booking photograph does not depict any signs of trauma or injury to his face or mouth. (See Statement of Facts). Plaintiff's deposition testimony that he did not have any back problems prior to his October 16, 2009 arrest is blatantly contradicted by the records from his incarceration only seven months earlier, in March 2009, which indicate numerous complaints of back pain. (See Statement of Facts).

Thus, the record evidence demonstrates that the only injuries which are at all substantiated beyond Plaintiff's assertions in his Complaint and at deposition are de minimis. Even if the scrape to Plaintiff's pinky toe was caused by his being dragged from the yard to the police car, as he claimed at deposition – as opposed to being caused by running through yards and jumping over fences in flip-flop sandals – this injury would be de minimis.

The amount of force required to cause the de minimis injuries in this case is also de minimis. The injuries documented in the medical and jail records are simply blatantly inconsistent with Plaintiff's assertions during his deposition that he was hit in the head with a radio and punched repeatedly in the face. No such trauma or injury is reflected in the hospital and jail records from the day of Plaintiff's arrest, including Plaintiff's booking photo. Moreover, Plaintiff testified that after being hit in the head with a radio, he lost consciousness for the entire episode up until the time he was placed in the police car, so there is no explanation for how Plaintiff could possibly be aware if he was, in fact, being punched. Viewing all the circumstances in the light most favorable to Plaintiff, there is insufficient evidence of physical injury to Plaintiff to support a constitutional violation under controlling Eleventh Circuit precedent. See Bradley v. West, 2007 WL 896274, at *8 (M.D. Ala. Mar. 22, 2007).

III. Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity.

The existence of qualified immunity is a legal question which is properly decided on summary judgment. Ansley v. Heinrich, 925 F.2d 1339, 1348 (11th Cir. 1991). Qualified immunity shields law enforcement officials from liability for excessive force claims when the official is performing a discretionary function if the official's conduct does not violate "clearly established statutory or constitutional rights of which a reasonable person would have known." Harlow v. Fitzgerald, 457 U.S. 800, 818 (1982). Because the Fourth Amendment's excessive force standard "establishes no bright line, qualified immunity applies unless the application of the standard would inevitably lead every reasonable officer to conclude the force was unlawful." Post v. City of Fort Lauderdale, 7 F.3d 1552, 1559 (11th Cir. 1993), modified on other grounds, 14 F.3d 583 (11th Cir. 1994). "If case law, in factual terms, has not staked out a bright line, qualified immunity almost always protects the defendant." Id. at 1557.

To deprive a public official of qualified immunity, the plaintiff must first show that the officer has violated a constitutional right. Second, assuming adequate proof of a constitutional violation, the plaintiff must show that the constitutional right in question was so clearly established that the officer had "notice" or "fair warning" that his or her conduct was constitutionally prohibited. In other words, if the Plaintiff's constitutional rights were violated, qualified immunity applies unless "at the time of the incident, every objectively reasonable police officer would have realized the acts violated already clearly established federal law." Garrett v. Athens-Clarke County, 378 F.3d 1274, 1278-79 (11th Cir. 2004).

As demonstrated above, the use of force in this case was not clearly excessive, and thus the Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity on the excessive force claim. Even assuming arguendo that there was a constitutional violation, which Defendants strongly deny, the Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity under the clearly established violation analysis. There are no disputed issues of fact on this issue, and accordingly, Defendants are entitled to summary judgment in their favor on the basis of qualified immunity.

CONCLUSION

The foregoing makes clear that neither McInerney nor Condoleo were present when Plaintiff was physically apprehended, taken into custody, and placed into a police car by other deputies. There is no evidence either Defendant exercised any force whatsoever against Plaintiff, or even had the opportunity to do so. Moreover, any injuries suffered by Plaintiff incident to his arrest are de minimis as a matter of law, as is the level of force used in effecting Plaintiff's arrest. Because of the de minimis nature of the force and injuries, there was no constitutional violation. Furthermore, because there was no constitutional violation, Defendants are entitled to qualified immunity. For all these reasons, Defendants are entitled to summary judgment with respect to all of Plaintiff's claims.

WHEREFORE, Defendants, PAUL CONDOLEO and TOM MCINERNEY, respectfully request that this Honorable Court enter an Order granting this Motion, entering summary judgment in favor of Defendants with respect to all of Plaintiff's claims against them, and providing any such further relief that the Court deems just and appropriate.

CASE NO. 10-62100-CIV-MORENO/WHITE

JONAS R. AUGUSTIN,

Plaintiff,

vs.

PAUL CONDOLEO AND
TOM MCINERNEY,

Defendants.

DEFENDANTS' STATEMENT OF MATERIAL FACTS IN SUPPORT OF THEIR MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Defendants, PAUL CONDOLEO AND TOM MCINERNEY, by and through their undersigned counsel, and pursuant to Federal Rules of Civil Procedure 56 and Rule 7.5(c), Local Rules of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, hereby file this Statement of Material Facts in Support of their Motion for Summary Judgment as follows:

STATEMENT OF FACTS

1. On October 16, 2009, at approximately 12:30 p.m., undercover BSO Narcotics Detective Tom McInerney met in an undercover capacity with Jonas Augustin at which time Mr. Augustin delivered fifty dollars worth of crack cocaine to the undercover detective [See Probable Cause Affidavit dated October 16, 2009 and DVD of narcotics transaction dated October 16, 2009].

2. During this transaction Detective McInerney was wearing a white sleeveless t-shirt and beige camo colored shorts as he sat in the driver's seat of the undercover vehicle. [See DVD of narcotics transaction dated October 16, 2009].

3. After Mr. Augustin delivered several crack cocaine rocks to Detective McInerney and Detective McInerney in turn paid Mr. Augustin fifty dollars for the cocaine, Mr. Augustin was offering to sell additional amounts of cocaine to Detective McInerney as other BSO deputies approached Mr. Augustin and attempted to place him under arrest. As at least one of the deputies approached he yelled "Sheriff's Office get on the ground" but Mr. Augustin fled from the police officers. [See DVD of narcotics transaction dated October 16, 2009 and deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011 page 60 line 20 through page 61 line 3].

4. As he fled from the police through the neighborhood, Mr. Augustin was wearing flip flop type sandals with the toes open. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 29 lines 8 through 19]. Mr. Augustin admitted that he assumed that the men that were chasing after him were the police. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 115 lines 11 through 24].

5. However, Mr. Augustin knew that if he got arrested he could be deported back to Haiti, [see deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 112 line 24 through page 113 line 2], and Mr. Augustin did not want to go back to Haiti. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 124 lines 17 through 19]. Deportation proceedings have begun on Mr. Augustin as there is an I.C.E. (Immigration and Customs Enforcement) detainer on Mr. Augustin as he serves his prison sentence. [See Florida Department of Corrections Inmate Population Information Detail].

6. While the Plaintiff fled from the police, Detective McInerney remained in the undercover vehicle holding the crack cocaine rocks that had been sold to him by Mr.

Augustin moments earlier. [See DVD of narcotics transaction dated October 16, 2009 and Affidavit of Thomas McInerney].

7. As Mr. Augustin ran through the neighborhood he admits to jumping over at least one fence, while wearing his flip flop sandals, as he fled from the police. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 86 lines 20 through 21].

8. In his deposition the Plaintiff initially stated that it was Detective McInerney that chased and tackled him, [see deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 83 lines 11 through 13], and then the Plaintiff changed his story and stated that he wasn't tackled but that while he was knocking on his aunt's door he turned around and saw that the police were in his aunt's backyard so he laid flat on the ground. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 83 lines 15 through 25]. The Plaintiff claims in his deposition that Detective McInerney was the first deputy to make contact with him and Detective Paul Condoleo was the second. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 81 lines 16 through 23].

9. The Plaintiff contends that Detective McInerney put handcuffs on him and then hit the Plaintiff on the side of his head with his radio. The Plaintiff claims that when Detective McInerney hit him on the right side of his head, he was knocked unconscious until Detectives McInerney and Condoleo lifted him up to his feet and took him out of the backyard to the street. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 98 lines 4 through 9].

10. In his Complaint, the Plaintiff alleges that he was the victim of an excessive use of force during his arrest and he identifies his injuries as only a broken pinky finger on his right hand and "severe back injuries". [See Plaintiff's Complaint , DE #1].

11. After he fled and was arrested the Plaintiff was taken to North Broward Medical Center for medical clearance at which time he advised the health care personnel in the hospital what he was alleging was wrong with him. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011 page 27 lines 4 through 7]. The Plaintiff's medical records from the hospital indicate that on October 16, 2009 the Plaintiff complained only of right jaw pain, cuts to this left small toe and contusions to his left leg and face. [See ED Triage Form 10/16/09 12:40 p.m. and Emergency Physician Record 10/16/09 12:50 p.m.]. However, the hospital records indicate that during a physical examination of the patient by the physician it was noted that there was "no bruising or swelling to the face" and "no swelling to the right thigh or bruising." [See North Broward Medical Center's Physician's Note]. The medical record indicates that the patient's only injuries were a "skin tear to the left fifth metacarpal toe and an abrasion to the posterior left shoulder." [See North Broward Medical Center's Physician's Note]. The patient was noted to be "stable for discharge and released into BSO custody."

12. When the Plaintiff arrived in the Broward County Jail he was medically screened by a nurse during which time an Intake Health Screening by Health Trained Staff form was completed on the Plaintiff. [See Intake Health Screening by Health Trained Staff dated October 16, 2009]. During the medical screening in the jail it was noted in the Questionnaire section that the inmate was asked if he was currently ill or injured and he stated that he was not. [See Intake Health Screening by Health Trained Staff dated October 16, 2009]. In the Observations section of the form, the nurse noted that the inmate did not have signs of pain, bleeding or injury. The screening form indicates that the Plaintiff was asked if he had any medical problems, including back problems, and he indicated that he only had right hip pain. [See Intake Health Screening by Health Trained Staff dated October 16, 2009].

13. In regard to the Plaintiff's alleged back injury, the Plaintiff testified that prior to being arrested on October 16, 2009, he did not have any problems with his back and he stated that he was positive that he had never complained to anyone about any back pain prior to that arrest. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 37 lines 7 through 23]. However, just seven months earlier, during a previous incarceration in the Broward County Jail, in March 2009, the Plaintiff complained of lower back and mid back pain which he had been experiencing for one week. [See Department of Detention Urgent Medical Care Record dated 3/5/09 pages 1 and 2, and Armor Correctional Health Services, Inc. Progress Note dated 3/11/09]. During this prior incarceration the Plaintiff's complaint of back pain was so extensive that he completed a Sick Call Request requesting to see a doctor claiming that his back was killing him and the medication was not working. [See Armor Correctional Health, Inc. Sick Call Request dated 3/20/09].

14. The Plaintiff's claim is that Detective McInerney and Detective Condoleo took him into custody and in so doing those detectives utilized excessive force. [See Plaintiff's Complaint, DE #1]. However, during his deposition the Plaintiff testified that he did not know Detective Condoleo or Detective McInerney prior to his arrest on October 16, 2009. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 38 lines 5 through 20]. In his deposition when he was questioned about how he knows it was Detective McInerney and Detective Condoleo that arrested him, the Plaintiff admitted that those were the names he saw in the police report. . [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 66 line 24 through 68 line 8 and Probable Cause Affidavit dated 10/16/09].

15. In his deposition the Plaintiff testified that he was absolutely certain that Detective Tom McInerney was wearing a black shirt with yellow identification printing stating Broward Sheriff's Office on the shirt and black pants. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 78 line 21 through page 79 line 1]. However, the Plaintiff's sworn testimony concerning what Detective McInerney was wearing is grossly inaccurate as the DVD video recording clearly depicts that Detective McInerney was wearing a white sleeveless t-shirt and light camo colored shorts. [See DVD of narcotics transaction dated October 16, 2009].

16. Additionally, the Plaintiff has testified that when he got beaten up he lost consciousness and doesn't remember anything. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011 page 65 lines 6 through 18]. In spite of the fact that the Plaintiff claims that he was unconscious after Detective McInerney hit him in the head, the Plaintiff claims to remember Detective McInerney punching him several times in the face. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 101 lines 14 through 23]. When asked to describe how Detective Condoleo utilized excessive force, the Plaintiff stated in his deposition that Detective Condoleo also punched him during this time. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 24, 2011, page 111 lines 13 through 15]. Although the Plaintiff accuses both Detectives McInerney and Condoleo of utilizing excessive force by beating him up after he was handcuffed, the Plaintiff also contends that he was knocked unconscious the entire time that the deputies beat him up. [See deposition of Jonas Augustin taken April 14, 2011, page 96 lines 18 through 21 and page 97 lines 13 through 19].

17. Mr. Augustin claims that when Detective McInerney hit him in the face with his radio, the radio cut Mr. Augustin's face and caused it to bleed. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 104 lines 10 through 17]. The Plaintiff also claimed that he was also bleeding a great deal from his mouth. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 31 lines 3 through 5 and page 105 lines 8 through 9]. Along with the hospital medical record and jail medical record indicating no bruising, swelling or other injury to the Plaintiff's face or mouth, the Plaintiff's color booking photo taken upon the Plaintiff's entry into the Broward County Jail does not depict any injury whatsoever to the Plaintiff. [Broward County Sheriff's Office Booking Report and color booking photo of Jonas Augustin].

18. As far as the scrape to the Plaintiff's pinky toe was concerned, the Plaintiff testified that he is certain that he didn't scrape his toe while climbing over the fence or otherwise fleeing from the police wearing his flip flop sandals because he runs track. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 105 lines 15 through 19]. In his deposition the Plaintiff alleged that his pinky toe was scraped and bleeding from his being drug out of the backyard to the police car. [See deposition of Jonas August taken April 14, 2011, page 105 lines 11 through 14].

SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 10-62100-CIV-MORENO/WHITE

JONAS R. AUGUSTIN,

Plaintiff,

ORIGINAL

vs.

PAUL CONDOLEO AND
TOM MCINERNEY,

Defendants.

The videotaped deposition of JONAS R. AUGUSTIN was taken pursuant to Notice of Taking Videotape Deposition, on behalf of the Defendants, on Thursday, April 14, 2011, at 7819 NW 228th Street, Raiford, Florida; commencing at approximately 11:30 a.m., before Kenna I. Tillman, Court Reporter and Notary Public in and for the State of Florida at Large.

1 hospital look at you?

2 A Yes. I don't -- I don't know if it's a doctor
3 or not but I just see somebody.

4 Q Okay. Whoever it was that saw you in the 5 hospital, a healthcare person in the hospital, did they
6 ask you what was wrong with you?

7 A Yes, I explained everything.

8 Q Okay. What did you tell them was wrong with 9 you when you first came to that hospital?

10 A Well, actually, I could've -- I couldn't do too
11 much talking but I assuming that I warned them about 12 what's going on at first, okay? I was -- I was being 13 beat up by the --

14 Q Okay. I'm not asking you about that yet.

15 A Okay. Okay. Okay. Okay. So --

16 Q Hold on. I just want you to tell me what the 17 doctors and healthcare providers in the hospital said to 18 you. What did you talk to them about?

19 A Well, I told them -- I actually talked to the 20 doctor and the doctor just look at me and all that
21 stuff. And so when I'm trying to explain so the doctor
22 can really provide me with actually what I actually try
23 to explain to -- because I'm trying to let this doctor
24 know I'm in pain, and -- and I need to get -- I need to 25 get treated for the pain that I'm in right now, but the

1 Q The right pinky finger?

2 A Yes.

3 Q Okay. And which knee was having pain?

4 A My right knee. That knee right there
5 (indicating).

6 Q Okay. And which pinky toe was having pain?

7 A This one right here from my left feet.

8 Q And by the way, when you were arrested on 9 October 16th, 2009, were you wearing shoes at the time
10 that you were arrested?

11 A I was wearing like a Jesus flip -- flip
12 sandals, yeah.

13 Q Flip-flop sandals, right?

14 A Have you ever seen the -- what the type of 15 sandals and stuff that come around the way around like 16 that?

17 Q But your toes are open, your foot is open,
18 right?

19 A Yeah.

20 Q It's a sandal?

21 A Right. Right.

22 Q Okay. All right. So you told the healthcare
23 providers in the jail all of these areas that you were 24 having pain and they looked at you, correct?

25 A Yes.

1 A All around, down by the bottom of my teeth and
2 all that stuff like that.

3 Q Okay. So your top lip was injured, your bottom
4 lip and up by your teeth were all bleeding, right?

5 A Yeah. Yeah.

6 Q Okay. So you're saying that a nurse came up
7 and said, oh my God, what happened?

8 A Yes.

9 Q What did that nurse look like?

10 A I can't really describe how she look like 11 because I only seen her one time, not even -- not even 12 for 30 minutes, it's somebody that I actually seen for 13 about like --

14 Q Okay.

15 A But she -- she just -- I assume she just a
16 white lady, that's all.

17 Q A white -- a white nurse?

18 A Yes, a white nurse.

19 Q Okay. All right. Anything else that you
20 remember happening in the hospital?

21 A And -- and I remember that the doctor actually
22 came up to me and say that to sign a paperwork. And I
23 told the doctor did he mind if I read the paperwork.
24 And the doctor say, no, you cannot read the paperwork.
25 So -- and I'm like, wow.

1 that, I be -- yeah, I've been in pain a couple times and
2 stuff like that, like -- like when -- like when I'm
3 about to get ready to go to bed and stuff like that.
4 Sometimes I woke up because, you know, I'm in pain from 5 my fingers and stuff like that.

6 Q No, no, no, you didn't hear what I said.
7 Before you were arrested October the 16th, 2009 --

8 A Oh, okay.

9 Q -- before that happened --

10 A Uh-huh.

11 Q -- did you have any problems with your back at 12 any time?

13 A Not to my knowledge.

14 Q Nothing? You didn't have any pain? Your back
15 was perfectly fine before the deputies arrested you,
16 right?

17 A Yes, sir.

18 Q Yes. And you're sure?

19 A Positive.

20 Q Okay. You'd never complained to anyone about 21 any back pain before that? The back pain all started
22 after you were arrested, right?

23 A Positive.

24 Q Okay. All right. I saw some records that said
25 that back in 2003 at one point you had attempted suicide

1 by taking a bunch of oxycodone, percocets. Did that
2 happen?

3 A Yes, that's -- yeah, that's in the past and 4 stuff like that.

5 Q Okay. The two deputies that you're suing,
6 Deputy Paul Condoleo and, before October the 16th, 2009,
7 did you even know who he was?

8 A No.

9 Q No. And the same question --

10 A You're saying do I even know who he was?

11 Q No, no. Before October the 16th, 2009, when 12 the arrest happened, did you even -- did you even know
13 who Paul Condoleo was?

14 A No.

15 Q No. And the same question for Deputy Tom 16 McInerney. Before October the 16th, 2009, did you even 17 know who he was?

18 A Before the incident happened?

19 Q Yes, before the arrest, right?

20 A No.

21 Q Okay. So you hadn't had any run-ins with 22 either of these deputies before that, right, before
23 October 16, 2009? You'd never ever seen them before,
24 right? Is that what you're saying?

25 A Never seen Tom McKinney (SIC) never in my life

1 A Okay. You're asking me, look, go to the
2 grocery store, it's like, get this for me. And I want
3 to go ahead and go get it for you --

4 Q Right.

5 A -- and I bring it to you.

6 Q Yes.

7 A And as soon as I did finish doing that -- as 8 soon as I done bringing it to you and walk away from 9 you --

10 Q Yes.

11 A -- okay? Then when I walk away from you, and 12 about like 30 -- about like 15 to 20 seconds later and 13 all I was hearing was get on the ground, okay?

14 Q Okay.

15 A When I heard that, I see a bunch of people was 16 black and I don't know who they were and I just running
17 because I was -- I was shocked and I don't know what it
18 was going on.

19 Q Okay. So let me see if I have this right. On 20 October the 16th, 2009 you met with some people, they
21 asked for you to get them crack cocaine, they gave you
22 money to get the crack cocaine --

23 A Uh-huh.

24 Q -- and then you gave the people --

25 A Uh-huh.

1 Q -- crack cocaine. Then you hear some deputies
2 yell, get on the ground, and you ran, right?

3 A Yes.

4 Q Okay. We know you've sued Paul Condoleo and 5 Tom McInerney. What does Paul Condoleo, what does he 6 look like?

7 A Okay. You tell me what does Paul Condoleo look
8 like?

9 Q Yes.

10 A All I can tell you about Paul Condoleo --

11 Q Stop. You're starting to answer a question
12 that I didn't ask.

13 A Okay.

14 Q My question is very simple. Please describe
15 for this jury what Paul Condoleo looks like.

16 A He just a white person.

17 Q So other than Paul Condoleo being a white
18 person --

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q -- you can't remember anything else about what
21 he looked like?

22 A Be honest? If he's here, I would identify who 23 it is because I'm not an artist --

24 Q Well, Paul Condoleo is not in the Florida State
25 Prison. So what this jury needs to know --

1 A Hold on. Hold on. Hold on. Wait a minute. I
2 only seen him stand when he was in the car. I made

3 a -- I made a mistake because I only seen him stand
4 when -- only time I say that I seen this man stand --

5 Q Yes.

6 A -- is when I got beat up and that particular
7 time, and I lost conscious and I don't remember nothing,
8 okay. So I can't tell you the final fact of how does
9 a -- how -- how height it is -- how tall it is right now
10 because these people had to drag me to the hospital
11 because I was totally a different person.

12 Q Okay. Let me see if I have you right. When 13 you were arrested, you lost consciousness --

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q -- and that's why you can't tell us even how 16 tall Paul Condoleo is, right?

17 A Yeah, pretty much it's all that stuff, you
18 know.

19 Q Okay. But because you lost consciousness, were 20 you not able to see how heavy he was; whether he was 21 fat, or skinny, or whatever, or can you tell us that?

22 A Apparently at the time when he -- yeah, when he
23 came up and stuff like that there, he wasn't really --
24 he wasn't really fat. And it's not really a fat person
25 and he's not really a skinny person either.

1 Q Okay. So --

2 A It's just like --

3 Q Your testimony to this jury is that you're sure
4 that Paul Condoleo is not heavy set or fat at all,
5 right? That's what you're saying?

6 A That -- that -- yeah, I'm gonna get to that
7 point, but . . .

8 Q So if Paul Condoleo is a heavy man, an
9 overweight man, a fat man, then you don't know who Paul
10 Condoleo is because you've just described him as not 11 being fat or heavy, right?

12 A No, no, no. What I'm saying is that I can't 13 really told a person about a heavy weight because --

14 Q Yeah, here's what happened. Mr. Augustin,
15 here's what happened --

16 A Uh-huh.

17 Q Here's what happened: You took off running
18 after the cocaine transaction --

19 A Uh-huh.

20 Q -- and several deputies caught you and you
21 don't remember what any of them looked like, you just 22 know you got arrested and handcuffed and taken to jail;
23 that's the truth, isn't it?

24 A Okay. Let me tell you something, I got 25 arrested, okay, by Paul Condoleo. I got arrested by Tom

1 McKinney, so these are the two officers that I got
2 arrested by.

3 Q How do you know that?

4 A Okay?

5 Q How do you know that?

6 A How do I know that?

7 Q Yes. How do you know their names?

8 A That's what it is showing right here to me.

9 Q I know. You got those names and that's who you
10 sued because on the paperwork for your arrest --

11 A Uh-huh.

12 Q -- those are the two deputies that are 13 mentioned, right? Those are the two names in there,
14 right?

15 A Those are the two deputies that mentioned --
16 that mentioned and those are the deputies that actually 17 acknowledged that when they caught me. Okay? When they 18 actually got me from my auntie house and all that stuff.
19 So these are the ones that first end up and saw me and 20 caught me and stuff like this, and given all confirming 21 statement and all that stuff, as well as that 22 acknowledge about they names in the police report as 23 well, so . . .

24 Q Okay. You've got the names and that's the 25 people you wrote into your lawsuit because in the

1 paperwork, about the report --

2 A Uh-huh.

3 Q -- that talks -- the police report that talks
4 about what happened, the two names that are in there are 5 Paul Condoleo and Tom McInerney, right? That's where 6 you got their names.

7 A That's where I -- that's where I get these 8 names right here.

9 Q Right. But --

10 A That's only when that I actually acknowledging
11 their names and stuff like that.

12 Q Okay. I got it.

13 A Okay.

14 Q You got the names out of the police report --

15 A Okay.

16 Q -- but we've already talked about that deputies
17 took you into custody and put handcuffs on you. But you
18 don't know the names of those deputies that put you in 19 custody because you don't even know Condoleo and 20 McInerney. You don't even know who they were before
21 this, right?

22 A No. Because I seen -- I see one of these -- I
23 see the whatcha-ma-call-it name when they actually
24 screaming at him, when they was screaming out his name.

25 Q What?

1 Q Okay. That's all I want to know.
2 A -- from October 16.
3 Q Yeah, that's what we're talking about.
4 A But if you're telling me about September --
5 Q Stop. Stop.
6 A Okay.
7 Q Stop.
8 A Okay. Go ahead.
9 Q We're not talking about September.
10 A Okay. Okay. Okay.
11 Q We -- listen, I want to be crystal clear here.
12 A Okay.
13 Q What we are talking about is October the 14 16th --
15 A Okay.
16 Q -- 2009 --
17 A Okay.
18 Q -- at the time you say excessive force was used
19 on you.
20 A Yes.
21 Q Are you certain, absolutely sure --
22 A Uh-huh.
23 Q -- positive that Tom McInerney was wearing a
24 black shirt with yellow identification about Broward
25 Sheriff's Office and black pants; are you sure?

1 A Yes.

2 Q Okay. And you're also absolutely sure at that
3 time that Paul Condoleo was wearing what? Tell us what
4 he was wearing at that time.

5 A Paul Condoleo?

6 Q Yes. October 16th, what was he wearing?

7 A A black shirt.

8 Q Yes?

9 A With a black pants and as well as he had the 10 pockets just like the Army fatigue pants.

11 Q Okay.

12 A Okay? That's the --

13 Q Got it. And there were other deputies there at 14 the time of the arrest also, right? Or was it just 15 these two?

16 A There were other deputies actually when they
17 actually get me out of my -- from my auntie's backyard,
18 and that's when I actually seen all the deputies.

19 Q Okay.

20 A Okay?

21 Q Let me --

22 A These other deputies was wearing full -- full 23 clothes -- full clothes on and just like the regular 24 police on the streets.

25 Q Okay.

1 A And that one -- and the one that actually -- go
2 ahead. Go ahead. Go ahead.

3 Q You got to stop --

4 A I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

5 Q -- interrupting me.

6 A I'm sorry. I'm sorry.

7 Q Okay. I'll start over. You've told us what
8 Condoleo was wearing --

9 A Uh-huh.

10 Q -- you've told us what McInerney was wearing,
11 and now you're telling us that there were two other
12 deputies that were dressed like them and one of them had 13 a ski mask on; is that right?

14 A Yes.

15 Q Okay.

16 A But them two there, the only get in the scene
17 after when them two -- when Tom McKinney and Paul
18 Condoleo, and Tom McKinney, he was the first one that 19 got me, that end up in -- on top of me as well, and Paul
20 Condoleo was the second one that actually came in and 21 stuff like that right there. So the both are -- came up
22 and stuff like that and started beating me up when I was 23 in handcuffs, okay.

24 Q Hold on. Let me see if I have this right.

25 A Uh-huh.

1 they say that -- then they also actually -- then here's
2 this other dude came in with the ski mask on talking

3 about look, I got to get me some of this, I got to get
4 me some of this. You know what I'm saying? So --

5 Q Some what?

6 A I guess like beat me up too as well. Because
7 when he say he got to get some of this, and I'm
8 handcuffed, he just punched me in the stomach.

9 Q Okay. Tell me what Tom McInerney --

10 A So --

11 Q Stop. We know Tom McInerney chased you,
12 tackled you and took you to the ground; is that right?

13 A Yes.

14 Q What else did Tom McInerney do?

15 A Well, when they did that, they don't tack me on 16 the ground, okay? They don't -- that chase and all that 17 stuff, they don't never get no chance to tackle me
18 nowhere on the ground. All they just doing is that they
19 just jump in my auntie -- they just -- they just break
20 in through my auntie's backyard, okay, then they bust
21 in, bam. When they bust in, then I'm knocking on the 22 door, calling my cousin, then when I turn around and I
23 see nothing but police officers in my auntie backyard,
24 and what I did, I back up away from the door and I laid
25 down flat on my chest.

1 A Yeah. Some kind of type of metal, but --

2 Q Yeah. Okay. So Tom McInerney puts the
3 handcuffs on you --

4 A Uh-huh.

5 Q -- then what happened?

6 A Then -- when they put the handcuff on me, then
7 that's when the other officers actually start came in,
8 then I'm laid down like this here (indicating), then
9 with my head straight ahead, okay?

10 Q Okay. Let me slow you down.

11 A Uh-huh.

12 Q And I forgot to ask you this --

13 A Uh-huh.

14 Q When you started running, how far did you run
15 before you got to your aunt's house?

16 A A couple -- a couple houses down because my 17 auntie's like the next -- the next streets over.

18 Q You had to jump a fence to get to your aunt's
19 house; is that right?

20 A Yes, I -- yeah, I jumped one fence and get to 21 my auntie house --

22 Q Okay.

23 A -- and that was it.

24 Q Okay. So --

25 A But then --

1 A Okay.

2 Q -- and it's hard to catch everything.

3 A Okay.

4 Q So now you're telling this jury that Tom
5 McInerney had a radio in his hand and he was hitting you
6 with the radio; is that right?

7 A Yes. He got the radio as well, too.

8 Q Okay. Where did he hit you?

9 A They were hitting me right there in the head,
10 right (indicating)?

11 Q Did he hit you hard?

12 A Okay.

13 Q Did he hit you hard in the head with the radio?

14 A Of course he hit me hard.

15 Q Well, I don't know, I wasn't there.

16 A Of course he hit me hard. He wasn't playing 17 with me. I wasn't his girlfriend.

18 Q Did he knock you out when he hit you?

19 A Yeah. The whole time I was on the floor I told 20 you I lost unconscious about like the whole time they 21 were keep beating me up.

22 Q Well, that's what I'm trying to figure out.

23 A So now -- then when he knocked me down and 24 stuff right there with the radio, and then he talked
25 about, oh -- oh, you think it's gonna be like -- you

1 know what I'm saying, you think you're just gonna be --
2 it was gonna be easy and stuff like that, have you
3 running and all that stuff and all this -- man, now he
4 keep calling me piece of shit in all kinds of ways and
5 stuff right there, bam, now the -- now the one -- the 6 other officers whatever with the ski mask hardly get
7 involved them --

8 Q We've gotten on to ski mask officers now. I'm 9 just talking about McInerney in this question now.

10 A Okay. That's what it -- that's what Tom
11 McKinney actually saying, okay?

12 Q I don't care what he's saying. I want to know
13 how he beat you up. And what you told me was --

14 A Uh-huh.

15 Q -- that he took his radio and he hit you very
16 hard on the right side of your head and knocked you --

17 A Right.

18 Q -- unconscious; is that right or wrong?

19 A Right. Then --

20 Q Stop. How long were you unconscious?

21 A I was actually unconscious like for a period
22 and stuff like there --

23 Q How long?

24 A For --- for a little -- for a little while by 25 the time they actually hand me and stuff like -- to put

1 me --

2 Q Okay. Let me see if I have this right.

3 A Uh-huh.

4 Q Tom McInerney hit you in the right side of your
5 head with the radio, knocked you unconscious, you're 6 unconscious until him and Condoleo lifted you up to your
7 feet to take you out to the street; is that right or 8 wrong?

9 A Yeah, they just -- yeah, lift me up, okay?

10 Q Okay.

11 A So now when they lift me up and I was like, you
12 know my eyes were opened a little bit, you know, I
13 could -- you know what I'm saying? You know, I couldn't
14 see a little bit blurry a little bit, you know what I'm 15 saying? But I could see the person in front of me.

16 Q Wait, wait, wait. Stop. Stop.

17 A Okay.

18 Q You keep getting -- you're answering questions
19 I'm not asking.

20 A Uh-huh.

21 Q You already told us that when the officers
22 first got to you, it was McInerney and Condoleo.

23 A Uh-huh.

24 Q And then once they handcuffed you, the other
25 officers came, right?

1 Q Well, that -- I'm --

2 A The radio --

3 Q That's just what you said before.

4 A Listen.

5 Q So now what is your story now? It's changing?

6 A Listen. I'm not changing no story, sir.

7 Q That's why I brought the videotape.

8 A Listen, I'm not change -- okay. I understand
9 that. I'm not changing no story.

10 Q Okay.

11 A Okay? The radio on the ground right next -- by 12 my head, right?

13 Q Yes.

14 A So he keep punching me and stuff like that
15 there.

16 Q Who does?

17 A Okay.

18 Q Who does?

19 A Tom McKinney and stuff like there. So now,
20 then --

21 Q Where was he punching you?

22 A He punching me in my -- all over -- all over my
23 face, man. My head, my face, and all that stuff --

24 Q Did he punch you in the mouth? Did he punch
25 you in the mouth?

1 what you said?

2 A It make a bruise on my face then. It turned
3 out to be like -- it turned out, when it healed, and
4 this healed, then the marks still there.

5 Q You said it was a scar. Is it a scar or it's 6 not a scar?

7 A What I mean by like -- I got a bruise when they
8 hit me with a radio, okay?

9 Q Uh-huh.

10 A So then I cut -- then the radio cut me up, all
11 right?

12 Q The radio cut you up?

13 A Yeah, cut me up and stuff like there.

14 Q Were you bleeding or did it not cut you very 15 much?

16 A I was bleeding -- I was bleeding from it, but I
17 wasn't bleeding that much from it. Okay?

18 Q Okay. What part of your face was bleeding?

19 A My mouth was bleeding.

20 Q Yes?

21 A So then from the side of my -- my eyeball was 22 bleeding.

23 Q Your eye was bleeding? Which eye?

24 A Not my eye, but the side of my like my -- like 25 right there from (indicating) --

1 Q You're touching the left side -- your left eye
2 from the top?

3 A Yeah. So --

4 Q Okay.

5 A One of the part that was bleeding as well, but
6 it wasn't really bleeding that much, okay?

7 Q Uh-huh.

8 A The one that was bleeding so much was in my
9 mouth and --

10 Q Your mouth was bleeding a lot?

11 A And my pinky toe was bleeding a lot --

12 Q And your pinky toe.

13 A -- from them dragging me and stuff like that
14 there.

15 Q Yeah. You don't think that happened when you
16 jumped over the fence, huh?

17 A Sir, certainly that wouldn't be happening --

18 Q No way.

19 A -- cause I run track, okay?

20 Q Oh, you run track? Where do you run track?

21 A Listen. Look, look, I run track.

22 Q Okay. Stop. I need to know about that. Sir,
23 where do you run track? What track team are you on?

24 A I run track team here.

25 Q Prison?

1 A Both of them --

2 Q Tell me what he did.

3 A Both of them was on top of me, okay?

4 Q Okay. We're talking about Paul Condoleo now.
5 What did he do to you? You said he used excessive
6 force. What did he do?

7 A I just -- look, I told you both of them were 8 beating me -- beat up on me, okay? One was -- one was 9 putting their knees and stuff like that there, okay, in 10 my back and all that stuff, then Tom McKinney was doing
11 all this thing, keep slapping me all in my face and all
12 that stuff. Okay. Then I'm handcuffed, okay? So I
13 can't really see when the punch come out from him, I can 14 only see when the punch come out from Paul Condoleo as 15 well.

16 Q Right.

17 A You know, but I just see both of them keep 18 beating up on me, okay? And that's -- that's just --
19 that's just the only thing that I could actually tell
20 you. Then, I laid flat on my chest, faced the dirt, my 21 mouth all over the dirt, now they keep press -- putting
22 their -- you know what I'm saying, putting their knees
23 and all that stuff in my back, his hand -- one of his 24 hands pushing my head on the floor for not -- try to get
25 up or anything like that there, which I can't. Okay,

1 but with him, I realized that they are pushing me from
2 all the movement that they are making on top of me,
3 causing all the injuries and stuff like that from my 4 mouth.

5 Q Okay. Can you tell this jury anything else
6 that Paul Condoleo did or Tom McInerney did?

7 A Can I tell the jury exactly that what they did?

8 Q Anything else? You've already talked for a
9 couple hours now. Is there anything else that you need
10 to tell the jury that Tom -- Paul Condoleo did to you or 11 Tom McInerney did to you that you hadn't already 12 mentioned?

13 A I already mentioned what they did to me, okay?

14 Q Because there's nothing else that you need to 15 tell us about, right?

16 A Other things that I would like to say is that,
17 you know, as them being the officers, they have -- I
18 mean, like, I know they doing their jobs at the same
19 times, but it's not the job when somebody in handcuff
20 and stuff like that, that they can see that they can
21 beat up on the person.

22 Q Okay.

23 A If I was doing any violent stuff I agree.

24 Q Right. Now, you knew if you got arrested that 25 you could be deported from this country and sent back to

1 Haiti, right? You know that that could happen, right?

2 A Yes. Yes, I knew that.

3 Q Yes.

4 A Okay.

5 Q And you already told us that you would do
6 anything you could to not be deported. So is that --
7 that's why you ran from the police because you didn't
8 want to get arrested and get deported, right?

9 A Not only that.

10 Q Well, is that true or not?

11 A Not -- that's not -- that's not because that I
12 ran from the police, okay?

13 Q Why did you run from the police then? If that 14 isn't the reason, what's the reason?

15 A Well, I ran from the police because first I was 16 totally shocked and I wasn't really thinking that these 17 people were police, you know, because they dressed in 18 all black and then all I heard was get on the ground
19 when I turned my back and all that stuff. Then -- and I
20 was scared as well, then I ran from them.

21 Q Well, let me ask you a question.

22 A Okay?

23 Q Let me ask you this question --

24 A So --

25 Q -- this neighborhood where this arrest took

1 know that was the cops? Everybody knows that's the 2 police, right? Who else is gonna do that?

3 A Listen. Listen. I never tells you that I
4 don't know that was the police.

5 Q Well, okay, let's be --

6 A I said that I was in -- I was shocked.

7 Q Okay. But let's be honest --

8 A I was totally shocked.

9 Q I got it. I got it.

10 A Okay.

11 Q Let's be honest here. When those white guys
12 jumped out all dressed alike and started running after 13 you, you knew that was the police, didn't you? I mean,
14 be honest. Are you gonna say you didn't know that was 15 the police?

16 A When I seen them -- when I seen them jump out
17 the van and stuff like that there?

18 Q Yeah. All those white guys. You knew it was 19 the police, right?

20 A Look, be honest with you?

21 Q Yes. Please do, for once, please.

22 A I was assumed that.

23 Q Of course, everybody would.

24 A I assumed that.

25 Q Of course, everyone would assume that.

1 A Of course nobody want to go to jail.

2 Q And tell the truth, just be honest.

3 A Okay.

4 Q Look -- look, the jury just wants you to be 5 honest.

6 A Uh-huh.

7 Q The honest truth is you didn't want to go to 8 jail because you knew it could get you deported back to 9 Haiti and you said you were going to be killed if you go
10 back to Haiti --

11 A Look --

12 Q -- so you ran because you didn't want to get
13 arrested; isn't that the truth? Or do you want to tell
14 a different story? Go ahead.

15 A I'm not trying to tell a different story.
16 Listen. I done went through it before with you already.
17 I told you that I don't want to go back to Haiti and 18 stuff like there because I already know the part of me
19 being deported and all that stuff --

20 Q Yeah. Yeah. And that's why you ran, right?

21 A Okay. So you can't really tell me that's why I
22 just ran because you not -- you not -- if you -- you not
23 actually a spatic (SIC) or a psychotic doctor and all
24 that stuff or a genes doctor to verify that, what the 25 reason why I ran. I told you already, I don't consider

Augustin v. Condoleo, et al.
Case No. 10-62100-CIV-MORENO/WHITE

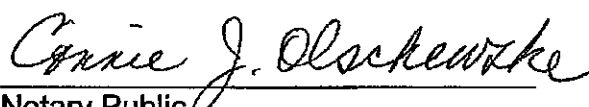

Plaintiff, Jonas Augustin. The undercover vehicle which I was operating was equipped with a hidden video camera which recorded the narcotics transaction as Jonas Augustin stood outside the driver's side window and sold me several rocks of crack cocaine for which I paid him fifty dollars in U.S. Currency. As Mr. Augustin was advising me that he had additional cocaine available for purchase, other Broward Sheriff's Office deputies approached Mr. Augustin, identified themselves as Sheriff's deputies and ordered him to lie on the ground. Mr. Augustin then fled on foot followed closely by the other deputies. I remained in the undercover vehicle and at no time did I pursue Mr. Augustin on foot and I was not present when he was taken into custody.

6. The first time that I saw Mr. Augustin, after he sold me the crack cocaine, was when he had already been taken into custody, handcuffed and was being led out of a yard to the street where he was placed into a marked police vehicle by other deputies.

BEFORE ME, the undersigned authority, personally appeared, Paul Condoleo, personally known to me and who, after first being duly sworn upon oath, deposes and says as follows:

1. My name is Paul Condoleo.
2. I am over the age of 18, and am sui juris in all respects.
3. I am a Deputy Sheriff with the Broward County Sheriff's Office and have been a law enforcement officer for 17 years with the Pompano Beach Police Department and Broward Sheriff's Office.

4. On October 16, 2009, I was working for the Broward County Sheriff's Office as part of a narcotics enforcement operation being conducted in the area of Deerfield Beach, Florida.

5. At approximately 12:00 p.m., on October 16, 2009, Detective Thomas McInerney was working undercover, driving an unmarked vehicle attempting to purchase crack cocaine. My role in the particular operation was to drive an unmarked vehicle and serve as a backup officer maintaining a perimeter approximately a block away from where the narcotics transaction was taking place.

6. At one point I overheard via the police radio that a black male, later identified as Jonas Augustin, had sold crack cocaine to Detective McInerney and other deputies were approaching Mr. Augustin to place him under arrest. I then learned, via the police radio, that Mr. Augustin was fleeing on foot being pursued by other deputies. I remained in my police vehicle and maintained a perimeter position west of where Mr. Augustin was fleeing from the other deputies. A short time later I heard over the police radio that Mr. Augustin was in custody so I drove over to the area where the arrest took place.

7. The first time that I saw Mr. Augustin, after the narcotics transaction had taken place, was when he was in handcuffs being placed into the rear of a marked police car by other deputies.

8. At no time did I pursue Mr. Augustin on foot and at no time was I present when he was apprehended and handcuffed by other deputies.

McInerney was meeting with the black male later identified as Jonas Augustin for the purpose of conducting a narcotics transaction. At that time I was monitoring the narcotics transaction through the use of a listening device which was present in the undercover vehicle. During this time I was able to overhear that the narcotics transaction had been completed so I instructed other deputies to approach Mr. Augustin and place him into custody. I was then made aware, via police radio, that Mr. Augustin was fleeing on foot and was being pursued by other deputies. I then exited my vehicle and joined in the foot pursuit of Mr. Augustin. Mr. Augustin jumped over several fences as he fled from the police but was soon taken into custody by Broward Sheriff deputies.

6. I was present when Mr. Augustin was contacted by deputies with the Broward Sheriff's Office, handcuffed and taken into custody. At no time during Mr. Augustin's arrest was anything but necessary and reasonable force utilized. At no time was Mr. Augustin punched or struck by anyone. Detective Thomas McInerney and Detective Paul Condolea did not apprehend or handcuff Mr. Augustin and neither of those detectives were even present when Mr. Augustin was taken into custody by other deputies.
